MISCELLANEOUS DISCUSSION

New Councilmember and Councilmembers-Elect. Councilmembers Bierman, Hall, Holman, Petrone, Nash, Peacock, and Mayor Clark welcomed Councilmember McGarry. Councilmember Bierman, Councilmember Holman and Nash congratulated Brandi Studlee for winning the Ward One Seat.

Councilmember Nash congratulated Rashar Tortorello for winning the seat for Ward 5 and said he knew he would do a decent job representing his ward.

Councilmember Holman said he was thankful to be re-elected.

Mayor Clark thanked everyone who was successful in the City Council election and also thanked those who ran. She said she admires everyone for running during this weird time. She has encouraged those who did not win to volunteer for a City board or commission.

Councilmember McGarry thanked everyone for a very warm welcome and looks forward to working with everyone to make Norman a better community.

Thanks to City Staff. Councilmember Petrone thanked the City's departments for working so hard during the last ten days of bad weather. She said she was very impressed. She thanked the City Manager for being accessible to City Council at all hours of the night.

Councilmember Hall said if anyone sees a City worker, please stop and thank him or her for their service to the City of Norman. She is very appreciative of City Staff and those who assisted so many people whose cars were stuck or who needed assistance. She said the Line Maintenance Division were there to turn off the water for citizens.

Councilmember Holman recognized City Staff and thanked them for all they have done during the recent cold weather, especially the hours employees spent at the Water Treatment Plant working to repair the pipe before people were totally without water. He said he had received many inquiries from constituents who wanted to express their appreciation for their service.

Mayor Clark said the City of Norman staff are the best in the state, if not the nation, and have proved it, yet, again. She said this was the third weather declaration in seven months and there have been four public health emergency declarations in less than a year. She said the price tag for the weather emergencies is $7.5 million and counting. She said this does not include any federal reimbursements, but still, it has been a tough year. She said she is very grateful and lucky to live in the City of Norman.

Thanks to Joe Carter. Councilmember Bierman, Petrone, Hall, Holman, and Peacock thanked Joe Carter for his service on Ward 2. Councilmember Nash said that Councilmember Carter will be missed.

*

Ward Meetings in Parks. Councilmember Hall said Council had been trying to figure out how to have a Ward Meeting during this pandemic. She said on Martin Luther King Day, there was a park cleanup in one of the parks in Ward 4 and it had been a great opportunity to get together with some of the neighbors. She said she is moving forward to set meetings in all of the neighborhood parks in Ward 4. She said that will also allow a neighborhood meeting.

*

Human Rights Commission. Councilmember Holman congratulated Sage Mauldin, Ward 7, for becoming the new chair of the Human Rights Commission.

*

Committee Meetings. Councilmembers Holman and Peacock said they were glad that Committee meetings would resume. Councilmember Peacock said he personally has several initiatives that he wants to meet about in committee. He asked any constituents who wanted something discussed to contact Council.

*

Shop Local. Mayor Clark urged residents to shop local. She said tonight's Budget meeting showed that the City needs more sales tax revenue.

*

Women's International History Day. Mayor Clark announced that on Monday, March 8th, will be the Women Perspectives to celebrate Women's International History Day.

*

Move with the Mayor. Mayor Clark said she will have her first "Move with the Mayor" at 9:00 a.m. this Saturday, February 28th is Pickleball at the 12th Avenue Recreation Center.
