MISCELLANEOUS DISCUSSION

Comments from the Public. Mr. Mark Campbell, Ward 4, said City Council used to actively respond during Miscellaneous Discussion and need to get back to it, otherwise City of Norman government is broken.

Councilmember Petrone said she agreed and hoped answers would be provided. She said she misses the citizen input. She would like to see citizens be allowed to participate in Planning Commission items as well.

*

Postponement of NORMAN FORWARD Projects. Councilmember Scott appreciated the postponements of the NORMAN FORWARD items because it is a fiscal responsibility Council has to the public. She also appreciated Council's comments and all of the time staff and the consultants had spent on these items.

Councilmember Wilson said she would like to receive feedback from residents about these projects.

Councilmember Hall also thanked staff for all their work and hopes Council and staff can find their way and get the community behind the bond issue so we can complete these projects.

Councilmember Petrone asked that the agenda item for Multi-Sport Aquatic Center be separated from the Senior Center so it will be less confusing.

*

Mental Health Awareness Month. Councilmember Scott reminded everyone that it is Mental Health Awareness Month

*

Mask On Campaign. Councilmember Scott said she really appreciates the "Mask On" Campaign.

Councilmember Scanlon said he went to the optometrist and the staff there was very careful about masks and social distancing and even asked him if he had recently been to New York. He said his optometrist really liked the safety measures because it protects him and his employees. He said when he went to the car repair shop, they even disinfected his keys.

Councilmember Carter urged people to wear masks because it works. He said he has been tested twice for COVID-19 and both tests were negative.

Councilmember Bierman said she still had masks for anyone who needs them.

Mayor Clark said this is not just about American freedom, but as Americans we should be looking out for each other. She said all of us have to stand together and asking people to wear a mask when out in public is not asking too much. She said she had been excited about "Mask Up in May" and thanked Dr. Nick Migliorino, Norman Public Schools; Erinn Gavaghan, Norman Arts Council; Scott Martin, Norman Chamber of Commerce; Coaches Lincoln Riley and Barry Switzer; and all Councilmembers for participating.

*

Virtual Ward Meetings. Councilmember Scott said she wants to have a Virtual Ward 8 Meeting via Zoom at the end of the month.

Councilmember Hall said she enjoyed the communication with her constituents and wants to arrange a Virtual Ward Meeting in the future.

Affordable Housing. Councilmember Scott appreciated the discussion on affordable housing. She said Norman is a very progressive and inclusive city.

*

Please Participate in the Polls. Councilmember Scott asked citizens to please participate in the polls. Council wants their opinions and their support.

*

University North Park. Councilmember Holman said he would like some sort of action plan for the University North Park Tax Increment Finance District (UNP TIF) when moving forward and what course of action will be taken if the bond does not pass.

*

City Forester. Councilmember Holman extended appreciation to the City Forester, Tim Vermillion, for stopping by his house to look at the condition of his trees, to provide information about what kinds there were, and how to care and maintain them. He said the trees surround the whole house making his home cooler in the summertime.

*

Flooding on College Avenue. Councilmember Holman said he had received calls from constituents who live on College Avenue regarding flooding issues. He said he contacted the Stormwater Division and asked them to reach out to his constituents.

*

Geographical Information System. Councilmember Holman said he spent part of last weekend on the city's Geographic Information System (GIS) and there are satellite pictures of Norman going back to 1997 and wished there were some older pictures. He said it is eye opening to see this, because there are things in those photographs that are no longer there. He also noticed that there was more affordable housing back then.

*

Ad Hoc Committee for Homelessness. Councilmember Scanlon said he attended an Ad Hoc Committee for Homelessness today and while the City does not have a Homeless Resource Center, there will be a need for a warming shelter this winter. He said the committee is trying to find a location. He said the committee discussed how COVID-19 had affected the homeless population and they seemed to be weathering well, with only one death.

*

Death of Homeless Man. Councilmember Scanlon said there was a homeless man named Richard who did not consider himself homeless who watched over all of the homeless people where he lived. He received news that Richard was struck and killed by a hit and run driver at Highway 9 and 24th S.W. and Norman had lost a very honorable citizen.

*

Crime Conversation with the Police Department. Councilmember Wilson said she is still trying to schedule a Crime Conversation with the Police Department and asked citizens to watch the Facebook page or email her with questions.

Census Forms. Councilmember Hall urged everyone to fill out their census forms. She said Norman has a 68% response rate which means there is almost 40% of potential funding that Norman could lose out on.

*

Graduates. Councilmember Petrone congratulated the 5th graders, 8th graders, and high school and college seniors for their graduation. She said she is grateful for Norman Public Schools for going above and beyond by being creative during a special time for these young people allowing them to feel special by signs in the yard and car parades.

*

Choose Kindness. Councilmember Petrone said how she chooses to react to things that happen and how to treat people are two things she still has control over and she asked everyone to choose kindness. She read a quote from Franklin Delano Roosevelt "Human kindness has never weakened the stamina or softened the fiber of a free people. A nation does not have to be cruel to be tough."

*

No Mow May. Councilmember Carter said a constituent of his introduced to him a new concept called "No Mow May" which has to do with pollinators and providing a habitat for pollinators. He said the winter before last, 40% of the honey bee population had been decimated. He sent a link to Council providing information. He said if the City was able to stop enforcing high grass in May and June to allow flowers to have more weeks of life, it would help keep honey bees and all pollinators alive longer. He said the City of Purcell just planted seven acres of milkweed by Purcell Lake to make it a stopping place for the Monarch Butterfly.

*

South Canadian River Park. Councilmember Carter said the South Canadian River Park is the great unfulfilled void in the NORMAN FORWARD projects. He said the South Canadian River Park could be envisioned as an area that is the breeding ground for endangered species like the Bald Eagle and the Least Tern. He said this park could be an educational laboratory for students to see pollinators, milkweed, and flowers to help preserve the lives of honey bees.

*

Clean Out Your Storm Shelter. Councilmember Bierman this is the perfect time for people to clean out their storm shelters.
